Gill Bray

Had a tricky situation to deal with and needed pronto advice... not only gave me free advice, but also confidence to go to a fairly stressful meeting.

On a completely separate occasion, she gave me lots of ideas for moving my business forward. If anyone is under the impression that lawyers are dusty old skinflints they should speak to Sue!

I will certainly go to Lime One before anyone else!

I had 'one of those' letters regarding copyright. I told Janine at Lime One all the facts and received very clear advice on defences available and their limits, challenges and questions to ask and how to respond. I ordered their online service as a result and got a letter back from a large law firm agreeing not to take further action.

Susan was recommended to me and I haven't regret it a second that I followed his suggestion.

Susan is just GREAT at what she does and what's more you don't get any surprises . You perfectly know what progress is being made and Susan meticulously guards the budget that is being put upfront.

Perhaps to really understand Sue's business you have to ( like me ) have spent a fortune on lawyers ( and other " Business Professionals " ) when you know that thier primary motivation ( because that's how they are targeted ) is to take as long as possible over something so that they can charge you more for it. They will also typically make it sound really complicated. My advice to you is to call Sue and her team and cut through the rubbish and save yourself a load of money !

I received one of those worrying letters that occasionally arrive. They sent a sturdy reply and that was the end of the matter. This was all achieved quickly and for a very reasonable fee.

Chris Plume

I contacted Susan late yesterday afternoon for some advice and her response has been very impressive. Sue took time to discuss the relevant issues with me this morning and at the end of the conversation I felt that I was in very capable hands.

I recently asked Lime One to draw up some contracts for Bleu Lavande (Terms & Conditions, Sub-contractor contract...). I'm pleased to say that the whole experience was painless and Sue's advice was always in plain English. I am a very happy client and will recommend Lime One as soon as an opportunity arises.

I asked Susan some legal questions concerning a proposed web project, whether there were any regulations in setting something like this up. Susan very kindly did some research on my behalf and as a result, we are having to re-assess how the project will be run - as there could have been a lot of trouble and wasted money. Thank you to Susan, you are a superstar!

I met Susan today and can confirm that her online reputation is fully-justified. Here is someone who listens, cares and dispenses great advice. Unforgettable!

Very many thanks for assisting me with my problem - I am still amazed at how such a trivial item can escalate into such a major issue.

Good luck with everything and I would like you to know that I will certainly get in touch with you with respect to any future personal or commercial business I have. You are a pleasure to deal with.

All the best
Tony Bentham

Richard Jones(client)

"I have used Sue and her colleagues several times and always felt better for having them on my side. Their work has been very effective in several different areas of my business and they even successfully managed some tricky debt recovery actions for us."

David Blume(client)

David hired us first in 2004 and hired us more than once

"...provided me with invaluable legal advice both as an employer and employee and I would not hesitate to recommend to anyone looking for professional, friendly, jargon-free legal services."

Peter Charles Fagg(client)

“... was extremely helpful and greatly instrumental in drawing up Terms and Conditions for my business. Since bringing them into use they have proved extremely useful in giving my craft business the professional look that was lacking with previous commissions. Cannot recommend abilities highly enough.”

Kat Trimble(client)

“Sue and her colleagues are brilliant at what they do, and Sue is an exceptional person - seriously bright, focused, funny, accurate and immensely pragmatic. She cuts straight to the nitty gritty of what you need and what your options are - and is always honest and utterly straightforward. There are numerous superlatives I could use to describe her, but I would be in danger of gushing - and she'd hate that.”

Leanne Knox(client)

“I can't recommend Sue highly enough. She takes loads of time to explain in layman's terms what's going on and produces quick and efficient results.”
